Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Joint Action in Community Service, Inc. (JACS) will celebrate its twentieth anniversary this year; and,

WHEREAS, JACS was founded by a coalition of religious leaders representing national Protestant, Catholic, and Jewish organizations with the mission of helping disadvantaged young men become employable, responsible, self-reliant members of their communities; and,

WHEREAS, JACS charter was signed on January 20, 1967, establishing JACS as a national, private, non-profit volunteer agency with a local focus; and,

WHEREAS, Joint Action in Community Service, Inc., during the past twenty years, has recruited, trained, and assigned volunteers across the state of South Dakota who have provided support and assistance to thousands of disadvantaged young men returning or relocating to South Dakota from U.S. Department of Labor Job Corps training/education centers; and,

WHEREAS, JACS' volunteers have helped these former Job Corps members make the transition from the Job Corps Center to the "World of Work" and have helped them become employable, responsible, self-sufficient members of their communities:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 28, 1987, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Governor's Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twentieth Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
